

On Monday 17th July we will be supporting the Bradley Lowery Trust with 'Cancer has no Colours'. Children and staff are to wear shirts or colours of their favourite football team. We are asking for a donation of £1 which will go to the Bradley Lowery Charity.

Our value this month happens to be charity and this is another great way in which our school can support our community and help teach our children about the need to support others.

